3. Lend money or securities. This restriction shall not apply so as to prevent the purchase of bonds.
4. Guarantee securities or obligations of another person.
5. Borrow money or provide for the encumbrance on its assets except in the two following situations:
 - a. The transaction is a temporary measure to accommodate requests for the redemption of units of the investment fund while the fund effects an orderly liquidation of its assets, and, after giving effect to the transaction, the outstanding amount of borrowing does not exceed (5%) of the net assets of the fund taken at market value at the time of borrowing.
 - b. The encumbrance secures a claim for the fees and expenses of any services providers for services rendered in that capacity.

CHAPTER SIX: NET ASSET VALUE & NET REALISABLE VALUE

Article (35) Net asset value (NAV) shall be calculated and stated as net asset value (NAV) in the same way it was stated and calculated in the audited or unaudited financial statements of the fund.

Article (36) The fund may issue and/or redeem units at a net realisable value (NRV) which is different from net asset value, subject to the following conditions:

1. The guidelines for calculation of the net asset value and net realisable value are stated in the Articles of Association and the prospectus, or in accordance with a resolution of an extraordinary general meeting.
2. The unitholders must be informed in the Articles of Association and prospectus, and prior to the above mentioned special resolution, if the redemption of units at a net realisable value lower than net asset value may benefit the unitholders who remain in the fund, at the expense of the unitholders who redeem their units.
3. Where units are redeemed at a net realisable value lower than net asset value, the discount from net asset value may not be more than 10%. This limitation does not apply to redemption at the time of liquidation of the fund.

Article (37) The front end load and back end load, which may be charged to investors at the time of issue or redemption, shall not enter into the calculation of net asset value or net realisable value.

Article (38) Each purchase or sale of securities made by the investment fund shall be reflected in the first calculation of net asset value after the date on which the transaction becomes binding. The issue or redemption of units of an investment fund shall be reflected in the first calculation of the net asset value of the fund made after the issue or redemption.

Article (39) The investment fund shall establish, in its Articles of Association and prospectus, the valuation methods for valuing unlisted securities or listed securities or other illiquid securities, that have not been traded during the preceding 20 working days. Valuation methods for illiquid securities shall be established for the calculations of net asset value and net realisable value.

CHAPTER SEVEN: LISTING AND TRADING OF UNITS

Article (40) The investment units of listed funds, shall be listed and traded in the Market in accordance with the provisions of the Capital Market Law & its Executive Regulation, the decisions issued to enforce them and this regulation.

Article (41) Transfer of ownership of investment units that are sold or purchased in the Market shall be in accordance with the provision of the Capital Market Law. Approval of the fund's management for the same is not required.

Article (42) Transfer of ownership of investment units shall be evidenced by registering them at MDSRC.

Article (43): Registration of ownership shall be carried-out without any restrictions except in the following cases:

Article (45) All orders for the purchase or redemption of units of investment funds shall be implemented at a price equal to the net asset value or net realisable value of the units next determined after the receipt by the fund of the order, and never at a price equal to any net asset value or net_realisable value calculated before receipt of the purchase or redemption order.

However, the investment fund may provide that orders received after a specific time on any business day or on any day which is not a business day will for purpose of the foregoing be deemed to be received by the fund on the next business day following the day of actual receipt thereof.

Article (46) An investment fund shall be deemed to receive an order for purchase or redemption when the order is in fact received at the office of the juristic person designated in the prospectus or simplified prospectus.

Article (47) As soon as the net asset value or net realisable value is calculated, the investment fund or the person who has received the purchase or redemption order on behalf of the fund shall send a confirmation to the client, with the following information:

The nature of the transaction, the amount invested or redeemed the sale or redemption charge, the net asset value or net realisable value and the number of units purchased or redeemed, and the date of the transaction.

Article (48) The rate of sale charges (or front end load) shall be expressed as a percentage of the net amount invested and the rate of redemption charge (or back end load), as a percentage of the amount redeemed, wherever reference is made in a prospectus or financial statement or in any correspondences or sales communication regarding units sales.

Article (49) A distributor or other intermediary offering units of an investment fund, shall comply with the following rules:

1. All monies received for investment on behalf of the investment fund shall be separately accounted for and shall be deposited in a trust account, but may not be commingled with the assets of the intermediary or with the monies received by the intermediary with respect to the sale or redemption of securities from other investment funds.
2. The intermediary shall not use any of the monies referred to in paragraph 1 to finance its own or any other operation in any way.
3. All interest on the account referred to in paragraph 1 less any bank charges applicable thereto shall be paid to the investment fund no less frequently than monthly. The intermediary shall not be entitled under any circumstances to any interest earned on the trust account referred to in paragraph 1 above.

4. All monies received by the intermediary for the purchase of units of an investment fund shall be paid to the investment fund immediately and in any event no later than the third business day following the date of receipt.
5. The intermediary shall not transfer, lend, pledge units of an investment fund held for investors in safekeeping or under plans or otherwise except as expressly provided for in any written agreement between the intermediary and the investor setting out the terms on which the units are held and may be dealt with.

Article (50) Payment of the issue price of units of an investment fund to which a purchase order pertains shall be made by the investor or on his behalf immediately and in any event no later than the third business day after the issue price was determined.

Article (51) Unitholders of an investment fund shall be provided at least annually with a statement outlining the procedure to be followed to redeem units and specifying the documents to be furnished in connection with the redemption order. This statement shall be included in the prospectus and in the annual report and simplified prospectus that is provided to unitholders and prospective investors.

Article (52) An investment fund shall not pay redemption proceeds unless the fund has:

1. Received the certificate when the units to be redeemed are represented by a certificate or a confirmation from the MDSRC or other transfer agent.
2. Received a written redemption order, duly completed and executed, or, if permitted by the fund, Email, fax or electronic order.

Article (53) If an investment fund determines that its requirements for redemption have not been satisfied, the investment fund shall notify the unitholder giving the redemption order, by the end of the business day following the receipt of the incomplete redemption order, that its requirements have not been satisfied and shall specify procedures still to be followed or the documents still to be delivered by that unitholder.

Article (54) Payment of the redemption price of units to which a redemption order pertains, less any applicable charges, shall be made to the investor by the investment fund on or before the third business day after the date of calculation of the net asset value or net realisable value used in establishing the redemption price.

Article (55) An investment fund may not suspend or limit the right of unitholders to redemption of their units except:

1. For any period during which normal trading is suspended on any exchange on which are traded securities representing 51% or more of the value of the total assets of the investment fund.
